

Greetings All,

2019 is here!!

We are excited to start this new year with you! CURIS Consulting is hard at work creating our 2019 schedule. A couple things to look for that are coming soon:

- FREE monthly webinars, conducted by one of our Principal Consultants. The schedule, topics, plus more information to come this February!
- FREE January Webinar sponsored by the Midwest Clinicians Network. Jen Calohan will be presenting on the Hurdles of Value Based Care. (For more information, or to register, see below)
- CURIS: Culture of Excellence Training Program: One of our most high demand services is our onsite trainings. We are expanding our offerings, generating more packages, and building new content- which means more topics and tools to train you and your staff! Information on our new and updated training packages will soon be available to view online. *If you would like information now please contact us any time.
- NACHC "Practical Art of Health Center Operations" Training: Shannon Nielson will be conducting part of this 2 1/2 Day training held by NACHC. The goal is to deliver strategies, techniques, and best practices to maximize health center operations. For more information on this training: Click Here.

We look forward to hearing from you this month!
Have a great January!
