KNOW YOUR STATS

Telehealth

Telehealth is growing and increasingly in demand. More patients than ever have access to phones, computers, smartphones, etc. One of the large benefits for healthcare facilities is the potential savings due to reduced office visits that can be addressed remotely.

- Telehealth makes up ¼ of the healthcare related technology market

-About 75% of ALL doctor, urgent care, and ER visits could be handled via technology vs an in person visit

-65% of patients say they are willing to see their primary care provider via telehealth
